

The Fairfax Ensemble
presents
In dulci jubilo

Ann Edahl, soprano, artistic director

Jennifer Sauer, soprano

Jane Ferris, mezzo-soprano

Stephen Johnson, tenor

Jerry Hui, baritone

Mike Peterson, bass

with

Michael Ferris, reader

and

The Trinity Recorder Consort

Linda Svanoe, director

Carolyn Fuerst

Penny Jacobsen

Carol Winge

Friday, December 7, 2007

Grace Episcopal Church

Madison, Wisconsin

Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland Samuel Scheidt (1587–1654)

Reading: Luke 1:26–31

Verbum caro factum est de Virgine monophonic setting, 12th century?
2-part setting, 15th century

Reading: Luke 2:6–7

Marvel nocht, Joseph 15th-century English carol
Qui creavit celum (Song of the Nuns of Chester) 13th century?

Reading: Luke 2:8–10

Es ist ein Rose entsprungen Michael Praetorius (?1571–1621)
Pastores loquebantur Francisco Guerrero (1528–1599)

Reading: Luke 2:16–20

Regem natum Jacob Handl (1550–1591)
Gloria from Missa Gaudeamus Tomás Luis Victoria (1548–1611)

Reading: Luke 1:76–79

Noe, noe psallite Jean Mouton (?1459–1522)
Companions all sing loudly Basque carol

Reading: John 1:1–5, 14

In dulci jubilo Michael Praetorius

2-part, 4-part, and 8-part settings

Verbum caro factum est Hans Leo Hassler (1564–1623)

Our thanks to Grace Episcopal Church, especially Berkley Guse, and Kristin Matuszak, for so generously and graciously allowing us the use of their sanctuary.